

A DAY AT THE GILWELL REUNION

Save the date
Saturday 2nd September
09.30 - 21.30

The UK Scout Association and Derek Pollard warmly welcome you to a Gilwell Reunion reception.

At £100 per head, tickets include an exciting programme of events as well as all refreshments.

Places are limited. To receive full details, please reply to show your interest in attending.

Each year over 2000 UK Scout Leaders meet at The Scout Association's historic Headquarters of Gilwell Park near London for a weekend reunion. This year Baden-Powell Fellows worldwide, their friends and spouses are invited to visit the Reunion for the day on Saturday 2nd September.

Parking, admission, a special welcome and briefing, exclusive use of a base room and refreshments, lunch, a special supper reception, a session about the Gilwell Scout World Heritage Centre development, the opportunity to tour the displays and activities and take part in the famous Gilwell Reunion Campfire are all included.

You will need to make your own travel arrangements and accommodation. No accommodation is available at Gilwell Park itself, but there are local hotels, and Central London is a short train journey away.

Places are very limited and if you are considering attending it is essential that you register your interest by email to dpollard@scout.org by 31st May to receive your formal invitation from the Scout Association.

I hope to see you in September at a great day out !

Derek Pollard – Board Member, World Scout Foundation.
